Mr. John Allen Chalk
P. O. Box 474
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear John Allen:

Brother Wallace has just returned and told me about the fine cooperation which you gave him.

Would it be advisable to work up a banquet in Cookeville featuring prospective students? We always get some good students from that section. Brother Wallace assured me that Brother Tarpley would help you whole-heartedly in making the plans and promoting the banquet. I wish you would discuss the matter with him and any others in that vicinity, and let me know what you think.

Can you find a good eating place that would accommodate one hundred people or more for the banquet?

By means of a copy of this letter, I am also writing Brother Tarpley. I hope to hear from both of you in regard to this just as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

W.A.B.
